A Splendid Day of Learning!

On Wednesday 26th November, the corridors of The Belvedere Preparatory School were alive with great anticipation, as pupils of Year IV prepared to cast aside the trappings of the modern age and stepped boldly into the world of Her Majesty Queen Victoria! Under the gentle guidance of their teachers, the children experienced the manners, customs, and lessons of a true Victorian schoolroom.

News of the Day: An Excursion Announced!

It is with great delight that we report that the Year IV scholars embarked upon an educational promenade to Princes Park, a place of both beauty and history. Here, they examined Victorian architecture and explored the tales of industry and invention that shaped our fair city.

Year IV also had an exciting visit to Belvedere Academy to discover the Victorian artifacts that they have on display.
