Fixed Term Exclusion and Permanent Exclusions.....3

EXCLUSION POLICY

Each child and situation will be treated individually. We will always work with all the staff and parents to ensure the best interests of the child, only as a last resort will exclusion be considered.

FIXED TERM EXCLUSION AND PERMANENT EXCLUSIONS

We expect all members of the school community to act in a reasonable, supportive and respectful manner in ensuring the well-being of our community. Where this is compromised by the conduct of a child or parent exclusion will be considered.

Belvedere Prep will apply its behaviour policies in a consistent, rigorous and non-discriminatory way and all areas of application of these policies will be monitored routinely. The following forms of exclusion are available as an ultimate sanction:

- On-site Exclusion: removal from usual activities but not from the school site, such an exclusion will last up to a full day. An internal exclusion may be the initial part of a fixed term exclusion while the school awaits the collection of the child by parents.
- Fixed Term Exclusion: the child is removed from school for set period of time at the discretion of the school.
- Permanent Exclusion: the child is removed from the school roll. This will be preceded by a fixed term exclusion to ensure proper investigation and consideration of events.

Parents are also subject to the above conditions, relating to fixed term and permanent exclusion, where the welfare other members of the school community is threatened by the conduct of a parent. Sanctions applied to a parent may include:

- On site: Access to the site and school events is only permitted under certain conditions.
- Fixed Term: Barring the parent from the site and school events for a fixed period.
- Permanent: Permanent barring from the school site. Removal of children from the school roll.

The school will communicate with the police where it is deemed necessary for the welfare of the community.

The power to exclude a pupil can only be exercised by the Headmistress or Deputy Headmistress in the absence of the Headmistress, and then only in consultation with the Headmistress. If the Headmistress excludes a pupil, the parents are informed immediately, giving reasons for the exclusion. The Headmistress will discuss all exclusions with a member of the BPS Board. A member of the BPS Board committee will monitor exclusions and ensure that the school policy is administered fairly and consistently.

Exclusion may be the result of repeated failure to abide by the school's expectations of good conduct, or to respect for its aims and ethos. However, exclusion may also result from a single serious incident, which may include the following:

- Threatened or committed violence or abusive language against other members of the school community.
- Distribution of illegal drugs.
- Bringing into school objects which may cause harm to other members of the community or pornographic literature or images.
- Stealing from the school, a member of staff or a fellow pupil.

- Malicious or disruptive behaviour, including open defiance of authority.
- Engaging in sustained bullying of other pupils.
- Making allegations against a member of the school community which are confirmed to be malicious.
- Malicious use of social media.

Every pupil has a right to confidentiality during the consideration of a possible exclusion; an investigation will be undertaken in the strictest confidence and the details only disclosed to those who need to know. This does not preclude the conclusion of an investigation being made public to the school community on completion of an investigation, if the person being investigated has been found to be culpable. If the School decides (after completing the investigation or as a result of new evidence and further investigation) that it is necessary to extend a fixed term temporary exclusion or to convert it into a permanent exclusion, the Headmistress will write again to the parent with the reasons for this decision.

Where exclusion has taken place the parents will be notified immediately, followed by a letter. This will detail the following:

- Length of exclusion and whether it is temporary or permanent.
- Reasons for the exclusion.
- Parents' right to make representation to the Headmistress. If they are not satisfied with the Headmistress's decision, stage 3 of the school's complaints procedure (the panel hearing) will be used as a template for an appeal against a permanent exclusion. During an appeal process, an exclusion will remain in place, except at the discretion of the Headmistress.
- The child will be given work to do at home for the first five days of a fixed term exclusion.
